NIBLO'S GARDEN.

"From Sire to Son," a play by Milton Nobles, who is an author, actor, manager and playwright, was presented at Niblo's Garden last night. It has been seen there before, and is well-liked by the patrons of this house. It tells a story of life in California, and some of the characters introduced are most cleverly sketched. The cast was a very good one, and the scenery extremely effective.

CASINO ROOF GARDEN.

The theatre of the Casino was closed last night, but the roof garden was open in all its glory. Its principal attractions were the skittish Miss Eunice Vance, with her popular songs, Belle Clifton, a novelty dancer; John Williams, the burlesque magician; Mamie Conway, Connors and Gilson, Clossie Campbell, Hodges and Larchmere, Lila Blow, Buck and Ward, Ella Caldwell and Pearl Andrews.

MINER'S BOWERY THEATRE. Miner's Bowery Theatre was packed last night. It has been entirely renovated, and presented a very attractive appearance. Reilly & Woods's Spectacular and Extravaganza Company gave a capital performance, in the shape of vaudeville and extravaganza. The latter was called "Hades Up to Date," and was well received. The former introduced Allen and West, Lottle Lonsdale, the Savans, Lily Laurel, Perry and Linbroke, Iler, Burke and Randall, and others.
